The Charlottetown Festival Announces
New Musical with Alan Doyle

Tell Tale Harbour

(Confederation Centre of the Arts adapting 'The Grand Seduction' into Musical Comedy 'Tell Tale Harbour')

Come Join Burgess Tours for this new Musical with Alan Doyle.

This hilarious musical embraces all things East Coast and beautifully demonstrates a small rural town that could be anywhere in Atlantic Canada. The hit movie tells the tale of residents of a small Newfoundland town who try to convince a visiting doctor to live there full-time in order to save their community.

A Member of the Order of Canada, Doyle is one of the nation's most treasured songwriters, revered for his solo material and his iconic band, Great Big Sea.

Doyle says about the songs for this musical, that we're trying to live in the world of people like Lennie Gallant, Ron Hynes, and Jimmy Rankin. We're so lucky in Atlantic Canada to have a traditional music scene and an original song-writing scene that draws upon its own roots.

We will be stopping at the Gateway Village for lunch (on your own) prior to making our way to Charlottetown for the Matinee performance. Here you can shop at the Islands "Largest Gift Shop" with the best pricing. Bringing along a picnic lunch is suggested. Following the afternoon Performance, we will make our way back to the Gateway village for supper (on your own)
